- Attendance information (such as sessions attended, number of absences and absence reasons)
- Assessment information
- Child protection and safeguarding information
- Medical information
- Special educational needs information
- Exclusions/behavioural information
- Children in care information
- Pupil Premium information

Why we collect and use this information

We use the pupil data:

- To support pupil learning
- To monitor and report on pupil progress
- To provide appropriate pastoral care
- To assess the quality of our services
- To comply with the law regarding data sharing
- To safeguard children

The lawful basis on which we use this information

We collect and use student information under the Data Protection Act 1998 (DPA) and Article 6 and Article 9 of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR). Article 6 (GDPR) Condition: Processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation to which the data controller is subject. Article 9 (GDPR) Condition: For substantial public interest on legal basis.

Collecting pupil information

Whilst the majority of pupil information you provide to us is mandatory, some of it is provided to us on a voluntary basis. In order to comply with the General Data Protection Regulation, we will inform you whether you are required to provide certain pupil information to us or if you have a choice in this.

Storing pupil data

Pupil data is stored on paper and electronically and is only retained for as long as necessary in line with our Records Retention Policy and General Data Protection Policy. Full details of data retention lists can be found in the Information Records Management Society - Retention Guidelines for Schools, which can be found on www.irms.org.uk

Who we share pupil information with

- Schools that the pupil's attend after leaving us
- Our local authority (and other local authorities for children moving out of the area).
- The Department for Education (DfE)
- OFSTED
- The pupil's family and representatives
- Educators and examining bodies
- NHS/Virgin Care
- Police forces, courts, tribunals
- Professional advisers and consultants
- Professional bodies
- Suppliers and service providers - to enable them to provide the service we have contracted them for.

Why we share pupil information

We do not share information about our pupils with anyone without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

We share pupils' data with the Department for Education (DFE) on a statutory basis. This data sharing underpins school funding and educational attainment policy and monitoring.

We are required to share information about our pupils with our local authority (LA) and the Department for Education (DfE) under section 3 of The Education (Information About Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013.

Data collection requirements

To find out more about the data collection requirements placed on us by the Department for Education (for example; via the school census) go to <https://www.gov.uk/education/data-collection-and-censuses-for-schools>

The National Pupil Database (NPD)

The NPD is owned and managed by the Department for Education and contains information about pupils in schools in England. It provides invaluable evidence on educational performance to inform independent research, as well as studies commissioned by the Department. It is held in electronic format for statistical purposes. This information is securely collected from a range of sources including schools, local authorities and awarding bodies. We are required by law, to provide information about our pupils to the DfE as part of statutory data collections such as the school census and early years' census. Some of this information is then stored in the NPD. The law that allows this is the Education (Information About Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013.

To find out more about the NPD, go to

https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/national-pupil-database-user-guide-and-supporting- information

The department may share information about our pupils from the NPD with third parties who promote the education or well-being of children in England by:

- conducting research or analysis
- producing statistics
- providing information, advice or guidance

The Department has robust processes in place to ensure the confidentiality of our data is maintained and there are stringent controls in place regarding access and use of the data. Decisions on whether DfE releases data to third parties are subject to a strict approval process and based on a detailed assessment of:

- who is requesting the data
- the purpose for which it is required
- the level and sensitivity of data requested: and
- the arrangements in place to store and handle the data

To be granted access to pupil information, organisations must comply with strict terms and conditions covering the confidentiality and handling of the data, security arrangements and retention and use of the data.
