

The Bolham Bullet

ISSUE 910 17th November 2023

Good afternoon,

We have had great fun today and raised a whopping £116 for Children In Need from the non uniform day (the amount raised from covering Pudsey is to follow!) Thank you all for your donations. Please see the photos later in the Bullet.

It has been a week of extra hard work in school but what results we have seen! In particular, Class 3 have written some lovely poems. The content and presentation of each individual poem is beautiful and the children are rightly proud of the work they have produced - well done Class 3! Class 1 have made some beautiful Divali light holders out of clay which are twinkling away in the classroom. We are starting to feel festive!

Please can I remind any Bolham Bees families of our cancellation policy. We are going to have to start getting stricter with charging for unused sessions. Most days we have a waiting list and we are having to unfortunately turn children away. This becomes frustrating when sessions are then not used. We require at least 24 hours notice of cancellation please.

Any children who are not collected at 3.30pm due to parents running late will now need to be collected from the office, not Bolham Bees.

Finally, just a reminder that there are individual photos next Friday. Families with siblings not at school can arrive from 8.30am for a group photo. KS2 children who normally come in PE kit are welcome to change at lunch time if you would prefer a smarter photo!

Have a lovely weekend!
