

The Bolham Bullet

ISSUE 911 24th November 2023

Welcome to this week's Bullet!

Although we have tried to resist the urge to talk about Christmas too early, there is undoubtedly a festive feel in the air! Due to breaking up quite early this year, our Nativity preparations are now underway and your class teacher will be in touch regarding costumes that may be needed.

FoBS are working really hard behind the scenes to organise a wonderful Christmas Fayre. This event was by far our biggest fundraiser last year. Any help would be gratefully received - please contact any members if you are able to support.

We have a parent governor vacancy of anyone would like to join our supportive governing body. Please feel free to chat to me about the role if you may be interested. Our governors are coming into school today to monitor our writing with Mrs Hillier.

Finally, we have a Y5/6 football match next Wednesday at Bolham during school hours. Messages will be sent out regarding kit for those who are asked to play.

Thank you for reading the Bullet and have a lovely weekend,

Mrs Sarah Milne
Headteacher
